How to use Standing Orders

Standing orders are the written rules of a local council. They are used to confirm a council's internal organisational, administrative and procurement procedures and procedural matters for meetings. They are not the same as the policies of a council but they may refer to them. A local council must have standing orders for the procurement of contracts.

Meetings of full council, councillors, the Responsible Financial Officer and Proper Officer are subject to many statutory requirements. A council should have standing orders to confirm those statutory requirements. A council should have standing orders to control the number, place, quorum, notices and other procedures for committee and sub-committee meetings because these are subject to fewer statutory requirements. If it does not, committees and sub-committees may adopt their own standing orders.

Standing Orders that are in bold type contain statutory requirements.

Other Standing Orders not in bold are designed to help councils operate effectively but do not contain statutory requirements.

For convenience, the word "councillor" is used in model standing orders and includes a non-councillor with or without voting rights unless otherwise stated.

These Standing Orders do not include Financial Regulations. Financial Regulations are Standing Orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local council. The Financial Regulations, as opposed to the Standing Orders of council, include most of the requirements relevant to the Responsible Financial Officer.

- c. You must not do anything that compromises, or is likely to compromise, the impartiality of those who work for the Council.
- d. You must not bully anyone.
(Bullying is offensive, intimidating, malicious, insulting or humiliating behaviour that is directed at someone over whom you have some actual or potential influence).
- e. You must not intimidate, or try to intimidate, anyone who has complained about you or who may be involved with a complaint about you.
- f.. You must not disclose information that you know, or ought to know, is confidential, without authority or a legitimate reason.
- g. You must not prevent, or try to prevent, anyone from obtaining information to which they are entitled by law.
- h. You must not do anything that may cause your Council to breach any of the Equality laws that prohibit discrimination on grounds such as age, sex, race, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or pregnancy.

14. Members' Disclosable Pecuniary and Non-Pecuniary Interests, & Dispensations

- a. All members shall disclose to the Monitoring Officer their disclosable pecuniary interests, as required by legislation.

All members shall disclose to the Monitoring Officer their non-pecuniary interests that comprise the membership, or position of general control or management, of any body:

- i to which the Council has appointed or nominated them; or
- ii exercising functions of a public nature; or
- iii directed to charitable purposes; or
- iv one of whose principal purposes includes the influence of public opinion or policy.

The Monitoring Officer shall record all such disclosures in a Register of Interests. The Register shall be open to public inspection and as a matter of law has to appear on the Council's and the District Council's websites.

Members shall notify any changes to the above disclosable pecuniary interests and non-pecuniary interests to the Monitoring Officer within 28 days of the change occurring, and the Monitoring Officer will amend the Register accordingly.

- b. Any member who has a disclosable pecuniary interest, or a non-pecuniary interest falling within (a) above, in any matter that a meeting is considering, shall disclose the existence and nature of that interest to the meeting. The disclosure shall be at the beginning of the consideration of the matter, or when the interest becomes apparent.

If the interest is a disclosable pecuniary interest the member shall not speak or vote on the matter unless a dispensation has been granted enabling him or her to do so.

If the interest is a non-pecuniary interest, the member may speak and vote, unless prohibited from doing so by common law principles relating to bias and predetermination ((c) below).

Where a relative, friend or close associate of a member has an interest in a matter coming before a meeting of the Council and that interest is of the same nature as a disclosable pecuniary interest set out in legislation, and the member is aware of the existence of that interest, the member shall disclose the existence and nature of that interest to the meeting. The member may only participate in the meeting to the extent permitted by the rules set out in (c) below, (relating to participation in situations where the common law rules of bias and predetermination apply).

- c. Where a member is prohibited from participating in a decision under the common law rules relating to bias and predetermination, the member must move to a designated area of the meeting room set aside for members who do not intend to vote, declare their position and explain that they will not be voting. They may then make a statement and answer any questions, and may remain in the meeting for the duration of the business. As well as not voting, the member must not move or second any recommendation.
- d. The following power is delegated to the Parish Clerk:
To be the Proper Officer for the purpose of requests for dispensations under section 31(4) of the Localism Act 2011, and, in consultation with the Chairman of the Council (or Vice-Chairman in the event of a conflict of interest), to decide whether to grant a dispensation to enable the member concerned to participate in the discussion, or to vote, or both.
- e. A member with a disclosable pecuniary interest can apply for a dispensation which, if granted, would enable him or her to speak and/or vote at a meeting on a matter in which he or she has an interest. The District Council will no longer be responsible for deciding applications for dispensations from Parish and Town Councillors. It is therefore necessary for this Council to approve its own arrangements for dealing with requests for dispensations from its own members.
- f. The grounds on which dispensations may be granted have also been amended. A dispensation is now possible if the Council (or the person to whom the Council delegates power to make decisions on dispensations) considers that:
- i. the number of members prohibited from participating would be so great a proportion of the Council or Committee concerned as to impede the transaction of the business; or
 - ii. without the dispensation the representation of different political groups on the Council or Committee would be so upset as to alter the likely outcome of any vote; or
 - iii. granting the dispensation is in the interests of persons living in the Council area; or
 - iv. it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation.

- g. However, this does not mean that requests for dispensations should automatically be granted. In particular, issues relating to the common law rules on bias and predetermination may arise and will need to be taken into account.
- h. Dispensation requests shall be in writing and submitted to the Proper Officer as soon as possible before the meeting, or failing that, at the start of the meeting for which the dispensation is required.
- i. A dispensation request shall confirm:
 - i. the description and the nature of the disclosable pecuniary interest or other interest to which the request for the dispensation relates;
 - ii. whether the dispensation is required to participate at a meeting in a discussion only or a discussion and a vote;
 - iii. the date of the meeting or the period (not exceeding four years) for which the dispensation is sought; and
 - iv. an explanation as to why the dispensation is sought.
- j. Subject to standing orders 14(g) and (h) above, dispensations requests shall be considered by the Proper Officer and the Chairman (or Vice-Chairman as appropriate (see 14(d) above) before the meeting or, if this is not possible, at the start of the meeting for which the dispensation is required.
